

This brand new little gem of a boutique hotel, on its exclusive beach property, in the small village of La Preneuse, is so exquisitely tucked away, that one may just drive past without ever knowing it to be there. About an hour's drive from the airport and built on two floors in a villa style, it offers 16 rooms and a pool with Jacuzzi.

Since its opening in July 2007, Les Sirandanes has already gathered the reputation of a stylish holiday haven with high class service, ready to welcome and embrace its visitors, drawing them into a uniquely romantic and pampering atmosphere with the unbeatable mix of stylish accommodation, haute cuisine and a promising spa.

WEATHER & BEACH: Warm and sunny all year round. The hotel opens on a white beachfront, facing the most beautiful sunsets of the west coast of Mauritius.

ACCOMMODATION

The rooms are airy and furnished in tropical style; the walls decorated with pictures of exotic flowers and plants. Most of the rooms feature double beds and a small desk. The adjoining bathrooms are equipped with toilet/ shower, hairdryer and cosmetic mirrors. The suite provides Jacuzzi, personalized bathrobes and beach towels.

FACILITIES

Les Sirandanes prides itself of having created a unique and essential "Art of Living" in its culinary style. They have left no stone unturned to please even the most demanding customers. The Chef, Patrick Babooram, is one of the best of his generation in the island. He has officiated in numerous four and five star operations before accepting to take up the Sirandanes challenge. His cuisine is a delicious fusion between traditional Mauritian and finest French terroir and one fully understands the thrill of providing diners and customers alike with a moment of pure eating delight.

Consisting of a cosy room, the Spa is nevertheless equipped with all the adequate amenities; natural products are lined up for your comfort and relaxation in this true haven of wellness.

